Home Finance Company (HFC) Donates Food Items in the North for Families affected by Cyclone Tomas

FOR RELEASE: Tuesday 20th April 2010

Home Finance Company Limited (HFC) as part of its corporate social responsibility today donated food items pre-packed for the less fortunate that was affected by Cyclone Tomas.

Chief Executive Officer – Mr Isikeli Tikoduadua and General Manager Customer Relations - Mr Edward Yee presented to the Commissioner Northern – Colonel Inia Seruiratu food packs that will be distributed to the people affected by Cyclone Tomas.

Mr. Tikoduadua thanked Colonel Seruiratu and his office for assisting and managing the distribution on behalf of HFC and said that the Commissioner Northern's office would distribute the items donated to those families who were badly affected.

HFC as a responsible corporate citizen is committed to helping communities at large and to support worthy causes.

Cyclone Tomas has left many people homeless in the Northern and Eastern division of the country and we are pleased to provide assistance with the many others that have contributed generously.

Mr Tikoduadua also took the opportunity to acknowledge the efforts and contributions of all the emergency service staff and the volunteers for their excellent work in providing assistance to reach out to those families affected by Cyclone Tomas.
