

HFC Bank proudly supports The Hub

Works underway at The Hub Complex in Waiyavi, Lautoka.

HFC Bank has signed a multi-million dollar agreement with Pacifique Du Sud Properties & Development Pte Limited, to finance a major commercial project earmarked to stimulate economic growth in the West and boost overall economic development for Fiji.

"HFC Bank is proud to be partnering with Pacifique Du Sud Properties & Development Pte Limited for such a visionary commercial venture." HFC Bank Head of Business Banking - West, Vandhana Sharma stated.

The largest of its kind in the West, this innovation will contribute immensely to the economy by bringing growth and development to the community.

"As Fiji's only Fijian Owned Bank, it is imperative for us to stimulate and encourage local businesses that contribute to strengthening communities through the generation of new employment and business opportunities." Vandhana added.

Pacifique Du Sud Properties & Development Pte Limited Director, Mr Rajend Nath said, "we are pleased to have the support and confidence of Fiji's own bank."

"The Hub will offer a state-of-the-art, one-stop shopping experience and boast a wide variety of retail & hardware outlets, a supermarket, restaurants, a food court, entertainment & spacious parking. Features include satellite market stalls, office units, charging stations, car wash, lush gardens and relaxation facilities. Anticipated for completion in June this year, The Hub promises an experience unlike any other for the people in the West!" Mr Nath added.

"Having lived abroad for a number of years was transformative but Fiji has always been my home." Mr Nath concluded.

Despite the global pandemic, HFC Bank continues to passionately invest in building a stronger, more sustainable future for the People of Fiji.

HFC Bank is proud to onboard this corporate connection despite competitive offers from other international banks.

"This project is a mark of distinction for the West that the Bank is truly proud to be part of. On the same note, we wish Pacifique Du Sud Properties & Development Pte Limited every success on future ventures." Vandhana concluded.

"HFC Bank is here to support the needs of local businesses and entrepreneurs that invest in the growth and advancement of the quality of life for all Fijians."

HFC Bank CEO, Mr Rakesh Ram.
